THE RIGHT TEAM MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE.

The Camden County Resource Center is one of nine partners comprising Camden County's One Stop Career Center System ~ a customer driven and outcome-based system that assists individuals in reattachment to the Labor Force. But the Resource Center serves more than those seeking employment. It is a valuable resource for employers seeking qualified workers.

By providing easy access to labor market and work preparation services, the Resource Center is able to achieve it's goal of supporting business growth by connecting employers to a well-prepared labor force. The services are delivered in a seamless and timely fashion to facilitate a fast track system to employment and integrate well with employers' expectations for workplace skills.

Here are just some of the applicant-related services offered by the Resource Center to help employers:

- Job Readiness and Life Skills Classes
- Workplace Literacy
- Comprehensive Workplace Assessment
- Referral to Training Services
- Information to Employers and Assistance in Completing Applications

For more information, contact The Camden County Resource Center at (856) 968-4200 or onestop@camdencounty.com.
